"Zines are an incredible testament to the longevity of print as a journalistic medium. It's an easy way to reach an audience you never could have had before. Many zines are still made the old fashioned way: some paper, art supplies and a photocopier. They are printed and distributed to close-knit groups or at rallies or meetings. Physical copies are passed around and a conversation is started and, by word of mouth, a movement is spread."

—Kristian Porter

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course introduces the history, culture, and practice of making zines and gives students a series of open-ended prompts to create editioned books or pamphlets—whether personal, narrative or political. A variety of book structures and digital and analog image-making methods are covered. Narration and sequence are a focus throughout the semester with both text and image. Each student will investigate an artist, distro, political or historical movement, or a technique relating to zines in a collective print publication.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

We will begin the semester by working on a class exchange that will allow us to learn the basics of scanning, working with Adobe Creative Suite, digital printing and editioning. A series of demos will be scheduled during the beginning of the semester to show additional image making, alternative printing and typographic techniques. After the first project three open-ended prompts will allow us to explore the personal, political and conceptual potential that zines offer. You will have roughly a three to four weeks to work on each of these projects. We will visit Special Collections to see a wide range of zines and artists' books, and several zine artists, scholars, and librarians will visit class to meet with us.

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

- Exploring the visual, linguistic and material aspects of zines and bookarts within a series of personal projects.
- Participating in theoretical and aesthetic discussion as a means of developing critical thinking skills through written and verbal analysis of artwork.
- Enhancing digital and analog technical abilities and gaining the ability to imagine greater possibilities with mixing old and new technology and combining media.
- Developing a well-rounded understanding of historical and contemporary issues through films, readings, discussion and field trips to Special Collections.

TECHNOLOGY & PARTICIPATION

Required Technologies

- Web browsers (Chrome, Mozilla Firefox, or Safari)
- Adobe Acrobat Reader (free)
- Microsoft Office (Microsoft 365 is free for all currently-enrolled ASU students)
- Reliable broadband internet connection (DSL or cable) to stream videos.

Classroom Behavior:

It is encouraged that you bring technology (cell phones, tablets and laptops) to class to help you take notes and do research, however please turn off cell phone ringers and do not use your phone to make personal calls in class or use any technology to use social media in class. Do not answer your phone in class. If you believe you are receiving an emergency call, please step outside to take it.

For Student Success

- check the course daily
- read announcements
- read and respond to course email messages as needed
- complete assignments by the due dates specified
- communicate regularly with your instructor and peers
- create a study and/or assignment schedule to stay on track
- access ASU Student Resources

OVERVIEW OF ASSIGNMENTS

PROMPTS

Prompts are essentially open-ended themes or special challenges to guide assignments. For three of the four prompts you will make an edition of five (5) zines: 3 for you to keep or trade (for the Mary Mattingly “Last Library” Zine project you will be asked to donate 1 zine to the “Last Library”), 1 for the instructor, and 1 for the class archive. You will choose ONE prompt to create a full class edition of 25-30 (depending on the final class enrollment) for an end of semester class exchange.

Manifesto Blueprint

You will be making your first zine as a kind of personal guide or framework of ideals, beliefs, wishes, aspirations or philosophies. Consider chronicling or listing these in an artistic, non-conventional way. Be creative! Be poetic! You may use image and/or text in whatever form you like. Think about cropping images, panning-in close up, zooming out, showing different details as you flip through the pages. Do images span across an entire spread? Bleed to the edges? These may be xeroxed copies of collages, drawings, paintings, or type-written, digitally created or hand-printed if you have the resources and know-how. You will need to create an edition of 5 or 25-30 zines.

20 Points: 5 Conceptual development, 5 Design, 5 Craftsmanship, 5 Completion

Due: Thursday 9/16

Subtext: Sequence & Subversion

Create a zine that utilizes an alternate text, a hidden message or perhaps two voices. How can you manipulate image and text to suggest or hint at something? How can the sequence of the book build to reveal a message? Zine structure is your choice. You will need to create an edition of 5 or 25-30 zines.

20 Points: 5 Conceptual development, 5 Design, 5 Craftsmanship, 5 Completion

Due: Thursday 10/21

Secret Maps & Instructions

This project asks you to think of the zine being a place to disclose secret locations, city walks or topographic hikes, instructions to find something, fading signs and signals, places to pause, or artistic wayfinding. Perhaps it's revealing something undetected, urban or wild, or functions more like a guidebook with directions. Zine structure is your choice. You will need to create an edition of 5 or 25-30 zines.

20 Points: 5 Conceptual development, 5 Design, 5 Craftsmanship, 5 Completion

Due: Tuesday 11/30

Mary Mattingly "Last Library" Zine Project

We will be working in collaboration with artist Mary Mattingly and the ASU Museum to produce zines centered around the theme of a "last library" as seen in Mattingly's Ecotopian Library project (<https://www.colorado.edu/cuartmuseum/exhibitions/currently-view/mary-mattingly-last-library>) using her artist manifesto (<https://marymattingly.com/html/MATTINGLYManifesto.html>) as a starting point for inspiration. You will need to create an edition of 5 or 25-30 zines. One of your zines will be donated to the Ecotopian Library.

20 Points: 5 Conceptual development, 5 Design, 5 Craftsmanship, 5 Completion

Due: TBD

OVERVIEW OF PARTICIPATION POINTS

Throughout the semester, we will be spending a great deal of class time learning new tips and structures for binding and creating zines. In order to do this, we will be making models, or practice blank books to learn how to make each book structure. These are not graded, but important to your success in this class. At the end of the semester, along with our final project, each student will hand in their models for participation credit only. Other activities that count toward participation are attending fieldtrips or guest lectures and participating in class discussions and critiques.

20 Points: 10 Demo Models, 5 Participation in discussions, readings & critiques, 5 Participation in fieldtrips

Models Due: Tuesday 12/01

REQUIRED PRIMARY & SECONDARY MATERIALS

Studio Supplies

Personal studio assignments will be created at home, and materials needed are provided by each student. Demo materials are provided by the instructor. The in-class supplies include cutting mats, exacto knives & blades, bone folders, awls, rulers, needles & thread, UHU glue sticks, PVA glue, book cloth and paper. You will be able to use the classroom anytime there is not a class being held.

Classroom Access & Protocol

You will be given the number to the combination lock for room 426, and will have access to the classroom anytime there is not a class being held. It is imperative that you lock the classroom and supply cabinets up again when leaving! Many students have supplies stored inside the room. Please be mindful of this! Additionally, there will be some planned lab hours that will be posted in the beginning of the semester.

Class Website

The website serves as a venue for course handouts, the course calendar, presentations, assignments, news, useful information, links, as well as a blog space for research projects.

Instructional Handouts

For many of the demos there are pages on the website with tutorial information and helpful images.

Required Books

There are no required textbooks.

Assigned Films & Readings

The first week of class we'll have a reading and a few films assigned that you will need to watch at home. Links are provided on our course website:

DATES & EVENTS SUBJECT TO CHANGE!

GRADING

Your grades will reflect the mastery of techniques, conceptual development and other project-specific criteria. A grade breakdown will be provided with these categories when projects are handed back, as well as written feedback.

Graduate students will be expected to produce work at a much higher level than undergraduates. Criteria will be clearly delineated for each assignment.

Your final grade will be a weighted average, calculated on a 200 point system which will be divided in two to determine your final grade:

20 pts. Manifesto Blueprint
20 pts. Subtext: Sequence & Subversion
20 pts. Secret Maps & Instructions
20 pts. Last Library
20 pts. Participation

100 pts. total

A+ 98-100
A 93-97
A- 90-92
B+ 88-89
B 83-87
B- 80-82
C+ 78-79
C 70-77
D 60-69
E 0-59

ATTENDANCE

- Your attendance is mandatory.
- If you know you will be absent, you are expected to notify the instructor by e-mail. Find out from a classmate what was missed.
- You are allowed 3 absences for the course. For every absence after the 3rd you your grade by 1/3 letter grade. For example, a B+ drops to a B, a B- lowers to a C+, and so on.
- Attendance will be taken at the beginning of each class.
- Three late arrivals and/or early departures equals one absence.

ASU ATTENDANCE POLICY

Attendance and participation for the duration of the class period is mandatory. If you have more than 3 absences (unexcused), your final grade will be lowered

1/3 grade for each subsequent absence (i.e. B to B-). You should notify me by email prior to absence if possible and provide doctor's note where applicable. Repeated tardiness and leaving class early will be recorded, and as a result, your final grade will be lowered. It is the student's responsibility to keep track of his/her absences.

Excused absences related to religious observances/practices in accord with ACD 304-04, "Accommodation for Religious Practices." Students may be excused for the observance of religious holidays. Students should notify the instructor at the beginning of the semester about the need to be absent from class due to religious observances. Students will be responsible for materials covered during their absence and should consult with the instructor to arrange reasonable accommodation for missed exams or other required assignments.

Excused absences related to university sanctioned activities in accord with ACD 304-02, "Missed Classes Due to University-Sanctioned Activities." Students required to miss classes due to university sanctioned activities will not be counted absent. However, absence from class or examinations due to university-sanctioned activities does not relieve students from responsibility for any part of the course work required during the period of the absence. Students should inform the instructor early in the semester of upcoming scheduled absences and immediately upon learning of unscheduled required class absences. Reasonable accommodation to make up missed exams or other required assignments will be made. Consult the instructor BEFORE the absence to arrange for this accommodation.

Line-of-duty absence and missed assignment policy: A student who is a member of the National Guard, Reserve, or other U.S. Armed Forces branch who misses classes, assignments or examinations due to line-of-duty responsibilities, shall have the opportunity to make up the coursework in accordance with SSM 20-18 Accommodating Active Duty Military Personnel. This accommodation also applies to spouses who are the guardian of minor children during line-of-duty activities. This policy does not excuse students from course responsibilities during their absence. Students should first notify the Pat Tillman Veterans Center of their activation and then the instructor to discuss options.

INSTRUCTOR ABSENCE POLICY

Students should wait for an absent instructor 15 minutes in class sessions of 90 minutes or less, and 30 minutes for those lasting more than 90 minutes, unless directed otherwise by someone from the academic unit.

LATE WORK/MAKE UP POLICY

Assignments turned in late will have points deducted (10% off) for every class period after the due date. For assignments that have been turned in too late to receive points, a grade will not be awarded, but will be taken into consideration when tallying final grades.

CLASS ETIQUETTE

- Come to class prepared to work with sketchbook and art supplies.
- No cell phone use, esp. during demos and presentations (talking, texting or checking messages.) Mute sound. Please leave the classroom to take emergency calls.
- Pace your work so that you are not too far ahead or behind.
- If you are tardy or absent, the instructor will not repeat the lecture for you. Try to form an alliance with a fellow student to trade notes and information in case of absence.
- At the end of class, please clean your work area.

IN-PROGRESS & FINAL CRITIQUES

Your attendance and participation are mandatory during critiques. Even if you have not completed the assignment, being present and supporting your classmates by actively contributing to discussions is essential for your success in this class.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY AND STUDENT HONOR CODE:

The ASU student honor code affirms the commitment of ASU to uphold the values, principles, and ethics of academic integrity. All students are expected follow the code which states:

- We, the students of Arizona State University, have adopted this code as an affirmation of our commitment to academic integrity and our participation in ethical education.
- We embrace the duty to uphold ASU's Honor Code, and in light of that duty,
- We promise to refrain from academic dishonesty.
- We pledge to act with integrity and honesty to promote these values among our peers. We agree to always abide by the Sun Devil Way and uphold the values of the New American University.

Every student is expected to produce his/her original, independent work. Any student whose work indicates a violation of the ASU Academic Integrity Policy including cheating, plagiarism, and dishonesty will be subject to disciplinary action. Plagiarism is defined as deliberately passing off someone else's words or ideas as your own. All necessary and appropriate sanctions will be issued to all parties involved with plagiarizing any and all course work. Plagiarism and any other form of academic dishonesty that is in violation with the Student Code of Conduct will not be tolerated. Arizona State University and the Herberger Institute for Design and the Arts expect the highest standards of academic integrity from all students. Failure to meet these standards may result in suspension or expulsion from the university or other sanctions as specified in the ASU Student Academic Integrity Policy (<http://provost.asu.edu/academicintegrity>), "[e]ach student must act with honesty and integrity, and must respect the rights of others in carrying out all academic assignments." This policy also defines academic dishonesty and sets a process for faculty members and colleges to sanction dishonesty. Violations of this policy fall into five broad areas that include but are not limited to:

- Cheating on an academic evaluation or assignments
- Plagiarizing
- Academic deceit, such as fabricating data or information
- Aiding Academic Integrity Policy violations and inappropriately collaborating
- Falsifying academic records

I sanction any incidents of academic dishonesty in my courses using University and HIDA guidelines. Should you have any question about whether or not something falls subject to this clause, feel free to contact me or review the university policy on academic integrity at the above link. Per ASU policy, a student may not avoid the consequences of academic dishonesty by withdrawing from a course, and may be placed back in the course in order to face sanctions resulting from academic integrity violations. You are responsible for abiding by this policy.

COPYRIGHT

Students must refrain from uploading to any course shell, discussion board, or website used by the course instructor or other course forum, material that is not the student's original work, unless the students first comply with all applicable copyright laws; faculty members reserve the right to delete materials on the grounds of suspected copyright infringement. A statement that the course content, including lectures and other handouts, is copyrighted material. Students may not share outside the class, upload, sell, or distribute course content or notes taken during the conduct of the course (see ACD 304-06, "Commercial Note Taking Services" for more information). THIS CONTENT IS PROTECTED AND MAY NOT BE SHARED, UPLOADED, SOLD, OR DISTRIBUTED.

STUDENT CONDUCT

ASU adheres to a university-wide Student Code of Conduct. The philosophy behind this policy states: The aim of education is the intellectual, personal, social, and ethical development of the individual. The educational process is ideally conducted in an environment that encourages reasoned discourse, intellectual honesty, openness to constructive change and respect for the rights of all individuals. Self-discipline and a respect for the rights of others in the university community are necessary for the fulfillment of such goals. The Student Code of Conduct is designed to promote this environment at each of the state universities. You are expected to treat your instructor and your fellow classmates with respect and kindness. In all correspondence and in Discussion Board postings, you should show respect for the viewpoints of others who may disagree with you or see things from a different perspective. Criticizing, ridiculing, insulting, or belittling others will not be accepted. Keep in mind that electronic communications do not have the advantage of nonverbal cues that are so much a part of interpersonal communication. Humor or satire can sometimes be misinterpreted in strictly electronic communication forums.

THREATENING OR DISRUPTIVE BEHAVIOR

Self-discipline and a respect for the rights of others in the classroom or studio and university community are necessary for a conducive learning and teaching environment. Threatening or violent behavior will result in the administrative withdrawal of the student from the class. Disruptive behavior may result in the removal of the student from the class. Threatening, violent, or disruptive behavior will not be tolerated in this class, and will be handled in accordance with ASU policy (SSM 104-02). For more information please visit:

<https://eoss.asu.edu/dos/srr/PoliciesAndProcedures> and
<https://eoss.asu.edu/dos/safety/ThreateningBehavior>.

WITHDRAWAL

If you are unable to complete the course, it is your responsibility to arrange for withdrawal from the class. You will not be automatically withdrawn and unless you are officially withdrawn from the course you will receive a final grade based upon the total points you have earned for the semester. Students are required to pay all tuition and fees for any registered course unless enrollment is officially cancelled during the 100% refund period. Please visit the Academic Calendar to review the withdrawal deadlines for this semester. For more information on Drop/Add and Withdrawal visit: <https://students.asu.edu/drop-add>

CLASSROOM BEHAVIOR (TECHNOLOGY USAGE)

It is encouraged that you bring technology (cell phones, tablets and laptops) to class to help you take notes and do research, however please turn off cell phone ringers and do not use your phone to make personal calls in class or use any technology to use social media in class. Do not answer your phone in class. If you believe you are receiving an emergency call, please step outside to take it.

SPECIAL ACCOMMODATIONS

Your instructor is willing to make any reasonable adaptations for limitations due to any disability documented with the DRC, including learning disabilities. Please contact the instructor during office hours or by appointment to discuss any special needs you may have. You must contact the Disability Resource Center to process the paperwork for special course accommodations. To request academic accommodations due to a disability, please contact the Student Accessibility and Inclusive Learning Services (SAILS) (<https://eoss.asu.edu/accessibility>) Phone: (480) 965-1234; TDD: (480) 965-9000. This is a very important step as accommodations may be difficult to make retroactively. If you have a letter from their office indicating that you have a disability which requires academic accommodations, in order to assure that you receive your accommodations in a timely manner, please present this documentation to me as soon as possible so that your needs can be addressed effectively.

STUDENT ACCESSIBILITY AND INCLUSIVE LEARNING SERVICES

Students with disabilities must have an equally effective and equivalent educational opportunity as those students without disabilities. Students experiencing difficulty accessing course materials because of a disability are expected to contact the course instructor so that a solution can be found that provides all students equal access to course materials and technology. Qualified students with disabilities who will require disability accommodations in this class are encouraged to make their requests to me at the beginning of the semester either during office hours or by appointment. It may be difficult to make accommodations retroactively. Note: Prior to receiving disability accommodations, verification of eligibility from Student Accessibility and Inclusive Learning Services (SAILS) is required. Disability information is confidential. (<https://eoss.asu.edu/accessibility>)

INFORMATION FOR STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES

Students who feel they will need disability accommodations in this class but have not registered with Student Accessibility and Inclusive Learning Services (SAILS) should contact SAILS immediately. Students should contact SAILS on the campus that your class is being held. Campus-specific location and contact information can be found on the SAILS website. SAILS offices are open 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday – Friday. Check the SAILS website for eligibility and documentation policies (<https://eoss.asu.edu/accessibility>)

POLICY ON SEXUAL DISCRIMINATION

Policy on sexual discrimination as described in ACD 401, “Prohibition Against Discrimination, Harassment, and Retaliation”, including the fact that the instructor is a mandated reporter and therefore obligated to report any information regarding alleged acts of sexual discrimination. Arizona State University is committed to providing an environment free of discrimination, harassment, or retaliation for the entire university community, including all students, faculty members, staff employees, and guests. ASU expressly prohibits discrimination, harassment, and retaliation by employees, students, contractors, or agents of the university based on any protected status: race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability, veteran status, sexual orientation, gender identity, and genetic information. As an employee of ASU, I am a mandated reporter and obligated to report instances of reported or suspected incidences of sexual harassment.

STUDENT RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Students must abide by all the requirements stated in this syllabus. In addition, all students should be aware of their Rights and Responsibilities at Arizona State University and abide by the ASU Student Honor Code.

STUDENT SERVICES & RESOURCES

You will find a list of student resources at: <https://eoss.asu.edu/resources>. Resources included are advisement, registration, financial aid, disability services, counseling, tutoring, library, and more.

NON-EMERGENCY STUDENT OF CONCERN PROCESS

If you are concerned for a fellow student's well-being, please review the information and complete the form at: <https://herbergerinstitute.asu.edu/resources/new-students/student-of-concern-process> FOR EMERGENCIES CALL 911. (Be prepared with the physical address of the location.)

ACADEMIC CALENDAR AND IMPORTANT DATES

The academic calendar can be found here: <https://students.asu.edu/academic-calendar>

SUBJECT TO CHANGE

The Instructor reserves the right to change portions of this syllabus (assignments, deadlines etc.) by verbal instructions during scheduled class time. The student is responsible for noting changes and acting accordingly. Grading and absence policies are not subject to change.

COMPUTER, INTERNET, AND ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATIONS POLICY

<http://www.asu.edu/aad/manuals/acd/acd125.html>

TITLE IX AND MANDATED REPORTER POLICY

Title IX is a federal law that provides that no person be excluded on the basis of sex from participation in, be denied benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any education program or activity. Both Title IX and university policy make clear that sexual violence and harassment based on sex is prohibited. An individual who believes they have been subjected to sexual violence or harassed on the basis of sex can seek support, including counseling and academic support, from the university. If you or someone you know has been harassed on the basis of sex or sexually assaulted, you can find information and resources at <https://sexualviolenceprevention.asu.edu/faqs>.

As a mandated reporter, I am obligated to report any information I become aware of regarding alleged acts of sexual discrimination, including sexual violence and dating violence. ASU Counseling Services, <https://eoss.asu.edu/counseling>, is available if you wish to discuss any concerns confidentially and privately.
